

Greetings!

Thank you for taking a few minutes to review an exciting opportunity with Evansville's new Big Book of Boredom Busters for Kids!

Thousands of parents, grandparents, teachers, teenagers and young adults already have this book in their hands — and the new Boredom Busters phone app will also be in their hands soon.

Distribution channels include:
Libraries. Schools. Realtors. Hotels. Sports complexes. Travel centers. Waiting rooms of medical offices (doctors, dentists, optometrists, etc). Area visitors centers. Countless Evansville-area businesses and non-profits! And many more!

Is this something you can see yourself being part of?

Boredom Busters is published twice a year. The current issue is currently available for wholesale purchase. When you choose Boredom Busters for Kids as a fundraiser for your organization, you generate extra income by keeping $15 for every book sold. To get started today, simply purchase a minimum of 10 copies at the wholesale price of $5/book and sell at $20/book retail (or any discount you choose). It's that easy!

In addition, when you purchase 25 or more Boredom Busters for Kids books at wholesale price, you receive a free ad.

Contact us at jace_gordon@yahoo.com or 812.309.2661, and let's take 10 minutes to discuss details about how your business can benefit!

Thank you!
